Review: Henjak heads out as Sunshine Coast continue to flounder

By SAM ALEXANDER

COMPETITION strugglers Sunshine Coast Falcons had coach Ivan Henjak step down this week after he was unable to stop the club's winless streak, which extended to 29 games last weekend.

Former Broncos head coach Henjak was unable to give the Falcons the boost they so desperately need and thus vacated the coaching position.

In more positive news for the competition, a Kalifa Faifai Loa hat-trick played a prominent part in Tweed Heads' underdog win against second-placed Northern Pride. The Pride's loss allowed Ipswich to consolidate their spot at the top of the ladder through a crushing win over Central Queensland.
